And millions are free
Like you and like me
The pages of history will recall
That it's all in Pennsylvania

EXPANSION OF PHONE SERVICE IS ANNOUNCED

Expansion of telephone facilities by the United Telephone company will cost more than $1,000,000 this year, bringing the total expenditures since the end of the war to $2,500,000, L. R. Thurston, president of the company, told Gettysburg district employees at a dinner in the Hotel Gettysburg Thursday night.

Projects in the Gettysburg district this year include: installation of four additional switchboard positions in Gettysburg, recently completed; a new cable from Gettysburg to Biglerville, placed in service a few weeks ago; a new cable from Gettysburg to Hanover; expansion of the long distance network throughout the territory; several cable relief projects in Gettysburg and Biglerville and construction of numerous new lines to provide additional subscriber service throughout Adams county, Mr. Thurston said.

Plan More Service

In his talk on the company situation President Thurston said that since the end of the war United's construction program has been devoted exclusively to the provision of central office equipment and outside plant to meet the demand for telephone service, and that the cost of the 1948 program will be more than four times pre-war construction programs.

Gus Arnheim wrote the music for the new Pennsylvania march and Jack Meskill wrote the lyrics as follows: "The company will continue its all-out effort to eliminate the list of deferred applications for service until demands for service are met," Thurston said. "In establishing a record for connections in 1947, the United's new installations amounted to more than twice the number on the deferred list which existed at the beginning of the year," he added. "Even though the company broke all records for installations, new applications for service almost equalled the net gain and the total number of deferred applications was reduced by only one-half of one per cent."

"So far this year the United is exceeding last year's record breaking installation program and applications for new service are also at an all-time high."

Quotes Statistics

Quoting statistics on the development of the telephone industry Thurston said that Gettysburg is above the average community of comparable size, having 28 telephones per 100 population, as compared with the national average of 22 per 100. He said that in Russia the average is reported to be seven-tenths of a telephone per 1,000 persons. On the basis of the Russian development, Gettysburg would have only 41 telephones instead of more than 2,000 now in service here, Thurston said.

The dinner party was attended by approximately 70 workers from Gettysburg, Biglerville, Fairfield, York Springs and Harrisburg. C. A. Bixler, district manager, presided at the meeting. The talk by President Thurston was followed by a variety of entertainment, featuring Charles Becker of West Chester, Pa. The evening was concluded with dancing.

Flooding Columbia River Breaks Dike At Portland

Portland, Ore., June 11 (AP)—The flooding Columbia river broke through another dike on Portland's outskirts today and raced over a rich lowland area extending ten miles to the east.

Inundated were the Portland airport, four golf and country clubs, a lakeside resort and homes for several thousand persons.

All residents were ordered evacuated days ago, but the sheriff's office feared some might have returned.

The airport siren sounded a warning when the break came in the early morning. The fire department at Troutdale, a small community on high ground east of Portland also wailed a warning to any returnees.

Eight sheriff's cars raced over roads ahead of the water with sirens going.

Army engineers pulled out all troops and dike workers.

Witness Says Russ Embassy Paid Her For Work As Spy

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP)—The Russian embassy today was drawn directly into Congressional hearings of alleged Communist wartime spying.

Elizabeth T. Bentley, who says she is a former Red spy, returned to the witness chair of the House un-American activities committee and testified that Anatol Gromov, first secretary of the embassy, paid her $2,000 in October, 1945.

She also said she told her the Soviet Supreme Council had awarded her a medal.

Checked By FBI
Her story of the money and the medal had been disclosed by committee members earlier, but she pointed for the first time to the embassy as the source.

Miss Bentley, who says she gave her story to the FBI in August, 1945, also told the committee:

"The FBI has told me that in checking all of the evidence I have given them they never have found any major discrepancy."

The committee put Miss Bentley back on the stand after hearing Henry H. Collins, Jr., a former military government officer, deny that he was ever a spy for a foreign country, but refuse to say whether he is or has been a Communist.

Recess Expected

Before he took the stand, Chairman Thomas (R-N.J.) announced that a special subcommittee will go to New York tomorrow to take testimony in closed session from Michael Ivanovitch Samarin, former Russian school teacher.

Other members said there are plans also to send a subcommittee—perhaps one man—to Canada to get a statement from Igor Gouzenko, the former Russian clerk who was responsible for breaking the Canadian atom bomb spy case.

It was disclosed, too, that the committee contemplates a recess of the hearings here. Rep. McDowell (R-Pa.) told reporters the committee will be in recess "all next week" at least.

Collins, who is now executive director of the American-Russian Institute in New York, held various government jobs before the war.

TOO MUCH DDT IS BLAMED FOR ORCHARD PEST

Adams county fruit growers, at their meeting at the South Mountain fair grounds Tuesday night, were told that too much DDT spray on fruit trees and not enough lead arsenate was believed responsible for the increase in leaf roller.

"Of the five or six species of leaf roller, we are particularly interested in the red banded leaf roller," Dr. John Pepper, State College, declared. "It is not new. You've had it ever since you have been growing apples. The laboratory at Winchester, Va., was opened because of leaf roller."

DDT Not Effective

"Some of these fantastic new insecticides work on some pests and don't work on others," Dr. Pepper continued. "As long as we used lead arsenate we didn't have much leaf roller. Lead arsenate will control it, but apparently DDT has little effect on it."

Dr. Pepper said the heaviest infestations were being found where DDT had been used for two or three years.

"The DDT has killed other insects, but has let the leaf roller 'go to town,'" he said. "It overwinters in a pupae stage in trash, rubbish and in the bark, and emerges like the codling moth in the pre-pink period."

Others Discuss Pests

"We found practically all stages of larvae and pupae today, and there is no question but that you are going to get another generation, and considerable damage," he declared. Dr. Pepper said Rothane, a "DDD" (Please turn to Page 8)

40 GO BEFORE BIGLERVILLE'S TOWN COUNCIL

The problem of drainage along Biglerville's main street brought 40 residents of the town before the Biglerville borough council meeting Tuesday evening in the fire engine house.

There, for more than an hour, the residents and their council, along with Russell Conrad, district state highway engineer, and D. E. Smith, contractor for the new street being laid in the borough, discussed the matter of drains to carry away the water from the properties of those living on the "high" side of the street.

At the conclusion of the talk most of the residents seemed satisfied that the state and contractor are willing to do everything they can to aid the citizens in solving the situation. But, as Council President John W. Deardorff, Sr., pointed out, "The utilities had to re-lay their pipes to accommodate the street and it looks like the private landowners along the way are in the same position as the water company and the gas company—they will have to re-lay their drainage pipes."

Many Pipes Torn Out

Various speakers pointed out that for years residents of properties on the "high" side of the street have run tile piping out under the street into low lands on the other side of the street. Much of the pipe was laid close to the surface and when the contractor tore out the old street to begin work on the new, the pipes and tile were torn out as well.

Contractor Smith pointed out that: "There are no maps to show where these pipes are, and some were placed so long ago that no one knows their course. As a result, the first we know they are there is when we dig them out. Some of our machinery has probably crushed some pipes without anyone ever knowing the pipe was there. A terra cotta pipe a few inches beneath the level to which we have dug could be broken by some of the heavy machinery running across it and the first you would know of it would be when water came to the surface."

Conrad and Smith agreed that the residents of the street could place new pipe, or lower old pipe which was not damaged so long as the work was done according to state department specifications and before the new street is laid. If they wished him to, Smith said, his machinery could dig the ditch for re-laying the pipe and if desired, he could put down the pipe. He preferred, however, Smith said, to have the individuals lay their own pipe. But they must make arrangements with him concerning the laying of the pipe.

Rice Speaks First
O. C. Rice, Sr., who placed an advertisement in the Gettysburg Times Tuesday urging residents of the town to turn out was the first speaker for the residents.

Rice and the other residents were told by council that council's interest in the matter was to see that the residents had a fair opportunity to re-lay, or place new tile before the road was put down, and that the individuals would have to make arrangements with the contractor for the playing of the pipe as they wanted it.

President Deardorff pointed out that "in each case it will probably be different. Each person will have to know where his drain will run and will have to make arrangements with the person owning the low land into which it will drain."

Smith pointed out that the pipe laid must be placed in conformity with state highway specifications. "We do not want to put down tile that will be broken, or will wear out almost immediately, because the new street would have to be torn up almost as soon as it is laid. All of us, I know, want to do a good job on this." He suggested that possibly "all of the people along the street could go together and secure one large drain to run down the entire length of the one street and into which each property holder could place a drain to carry off his water. In that way," he suggested, "there would be but one main drain to lay and only one, or possibly two outlets for the drain would be needed, thus making the work of all easier and one drain for all would probably make the work less expensive."

No Sewage May Enter

Conrad made it clear that no sewage, or contamination water could be run into the drains being placed by the state to drain out under the road in response to a query from Rice as to whether he could run his drain into a drain near his place (Please turn to Page 2)

The Draft Law

(By The Associated Press)
Under the Selective Service bill passed by the Senate: Men 18 through 25 would have to register.

Men 19 through 25 would be subject to draft for two years service.

Exemptions would be given to: Married men, men with dependents, members of the National Guard and Reserve Units, and most veterans.

High school students doing satisfactorily in their studies would be deferred until they graduated or until they reach 20, whichever comes first.

150 MISSING AS DANISH SHIP IS SUNK BY MINE

Aalborg, Denmark, June 11 (AP)—A Danish passenger vessel carrying 400 persons struck a mine and sank in the Kattegat early today and at mid-morning 150 of the passengers and crew members still were unaccounted for.

The vessel was the 1,668-ton steamer Kjoebenhavn, owned by the United Steamship company (D. F. D. S.). A company official said most of the passengers not accounted for must be feared drowned. He said about 250 passengers and crew members had been rescued by 10 a. m. (5 a. m. EST).

The first vessel to reach shore from the scene of the disaster was the Danish tanker Dangulf Lube, which carried 13 severely wounded. She touched at the small Hals harbor at 9 a. m. Ambulances were waiting and the survivors were hurried to the local hospital, where doctors had been standing by since early morning.

Sank In 10 Minutes
The Kjoebenhavn was traveling between Copenhagen and Aalborg when she hit the mine. Aalborg is northwest of Copenhagen across the Kattegat, the strait separating Sweden and Denmark.

The company said the ship went down in 10 minutes, four miles south of the Aalborg bay lightship in the northern part of the Kattegat. Early reports to the company, it said, indicated only two lifeboats were lowered before the vessel sank.

Many ships in the area hurried to the scene and one, the Frigga, also owned by the D.F.D.S. company reported that she had picked up about 200 passengers from the sunken ship. Many of them, the Frigga reported, suffered severe wounds and others were suffering from exposure.

Crowds Mourn
Crowds of relatives of crew members and passengers assembled in front of the D.F.D.S. office in Copenhagen but the company was not able to furnish them with any information about the survivors.

One official said about 200 of the passengers probably were asleep in their berths when the explosion occurred. The rest travelled steerage and most of them spent the night in deck chairs.

When news of the disaster spread Copenhagen flags were lowered halfmast on all ships in the harbor. Aalborg City is also in mourning.

The Danish state radio cancelled its regular programs to send out news bulletins of the disaster.

Reject Request For State Intervention

Philadelphia, June 11 (AP)—A request by the June grand jury for state intervention in the probe of Philadelphia's municipal affairs was summarily rejected by President Judge Raymond MacNelle.

The jury's request yesterday was announced shortly after it had handed up a presentment dismissing charges by Richardson Dilworth, unsuccessful Democratic candidate for mayor in last November's election, that the probe is a "whitewash." The jury said it found no basis for such charges by Dilworth.

Meanwhile Mayor Bernard Samuel dismissed Charles H. Grakelow as director of supplies and purchases on the grounds of departmental mismanagement.

Grakelow, together with Receiver of Taxes W. Frank Marshall, have been two of the central figures in the municipal probe.

CLAIMS HOUSE E.R.P. SLASHES BAN RECOVERY

Washington, June 11 (AP)—The boss of the European Recovery Program said today House cuts in ERP funds would virtually "eliminate" plans to put Europe's industry back on its feet.

"The brunt of the cut must fall on the machinery and equipment necessary to restore or increase Europe's productive capacity," Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman told the Senate Appropriations committee.

"The most productive and the most far-reaching part of the recovery program would for all practical purposes be eliminated."

Reduce Shipments
Hoffman's first formal appeal for restoration of the full $5,300,000,000 in recovery funds showed that machinery shipments would have to be reduced from $1,100,000,000 to $100,000,000 if the Senate upholds the House slash.

The House voted to spread the $5,300,000,000 over 15 months instead of the 12 months authorized by Congress in setting up ERP. This would have the effect of cutting recovery spending from $1,000,000,000 to $2,000,000,000.

In advance of Hoffman's appearance, a Republican member predicted the committee would heed pleas of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) and others and put back most of the cuts made by the House. Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, had been fighting the reduction since the House acted.

Need Food, Material
Hoffman said food and raw materials must keep flowing if Europe is to survive, therefore the industrial recovery goods would have to be cut.

He decried the proposal of Chairman John Taber (R-NY) of the House Ways and Means committee that ECA come back for more funds next year if it runs out.

"I can not state too strongly that the emergency is here," Hoffman said, adding: "No matter what appropriation the Congress decides to make, we will spend only what we believe will constructively contribute to recovery."

PEACE BEGINS IN HOLY LAND

By MAX BOYD
Cairo, June 11 (AP)—Armed peace for at least four weeks began in Palestine today, bringing with it a glimmer of hope for an end to Arab Jewish warfare.

Indications from the Holy Land were that the truce fixed by the United Nations mediator was generally observed. However the Arab Legion accused the Jews of killing an Arab soldier in Jerusalem and Jewish Tel Aviv had an air raid alert after the truce deadline, 1 a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Jews and Arabs made last-minute jabs to improve their military positions. The lines will remain stabilized while peace talks are carried out on the island of Rhodes under United Nations sponsorship.

An Israeli communique claimed important successes in a last-minute battle of Jews with the Arab Legion at Latrun for control of the key road from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv. The Arabs reported in Amman, Trans-Jordan, that the Jewish attack failed and the Jews lost at least 100 killed and a number of prisoners.

Trans-Jordan's King Abdullah arranged to visit the Arab-held old City of Jerusalem today, coming in along the Jericho Road under arches of Palm leaves placed along the highway for his passage. Cheering crowds of Arabs gathered to hail him as the King of Jerusalem. Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte.

SCHOOL PUPILS NEAR 2,000,000

Harrisburg, Aug. 11 (AP)—There will be approximately 1,851,000 students in public and private schools in Pennsylvania next month if the state's forecast stands up.

This will be an increase of approximately 27,000 over the enrollment in the 1947-48 school term with most of the increase coming in the first grade.

Dr. Carl D. Mornewick, chief of child accounting and research in the Department of Public Instruction, made the estimate today on the basis of statistics from many sources, including births and deaths in recent years.

His estimates, which have been fairly accurate through the years, are the only figures school administrators have on which to base their planning on a state-wide scale.

Enrollment figures in public schools last year stand at 1,530,000 but these are still incomplete since all reports are not yet in. Enrollment in the 1946-47 term totaled 1,483,000.

Dr. Mornewick estimated the increase in the first grade at about two per cent over the 1947-48 level. Some of the other primary grades also will show gains, reflecting the larger beginner classes of the last few years.

But when the children born in 1944 and 1945, the war years, reach school age, the number will drop and then start to climb sharply again until a peak is reached about 1954.

Jerusalem, Aug. 11 (AP)—Guns and artillery resounded from midnight to dawn today in the heaviest fighting here since the UN cease fire was imposed.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the mediator who said he was going to get tough in order to stop the shooting, was here and heard it all. The UN officer has put 50 more American and French observers on the job in an effort to restore peace.

40 GO BEFORE

being established by the highway department. "We are a branch of the state government and we cannot abrogate the regulations of another branch of the state government," he said. Rice had wanted to permit wash water to run through his drain into the state drain, pointing out that there is no sewage in the water. "That cannot be helped, wash water is, under the rules, contaminated water, and we cannot permit it," Conrad said.

Charles Rouzer and Benton Fidler were others who had questions concerning the laying of drains.

$26,000 Question

Another problem—which council confessed was a $26,000 one—was posed by the residents. "Why," they asked, "should the borough make a street 48 feet wide throughout the town and then right at the end of it have a bridge only about 32 feet wide. Who will pay the damages if someone falls to see the railings and smashes into it? Will the borough have to burn a light there every night to show drivers that the road suddenly narrows?"

President Deardorff and other members of council assured the residents that "No one would like to see that bridge widened more than we. The state also would like to see it widened, but the cost is too high, much too high. The state says it cannot bear the cost and the borough does not have the funds to do it. So the only thing we can do is to let it be as it is for the present."

Conrad added: "If the people of this borough want to put up the $26,000 or so needed to increase the size of the bridge and will do it right away we'll enlarge the contract and have it done with the rest of the work. But the street is already costing the state nearly $200,000 and the department just does not have the money to go ahead on its own."

Discussion On Sidewalks

In answer to questions about the pavements being torn up in relaying of the street, council pointed out: "Our agreement with the state provides that sidewalks will be interfered with as little as possible. Those who wanted their pavements torn up and new ones re-laid in connection with this were given the opportunity, and those were the ones torn out. Mr. Smith is willing to re-lay the sidewalks at a very low sum and those who wanted new sidewalks took advantage of the offer." Deardorff said.

In cases where part of the sidewalk was torn out in the right of way for the street, and in places where the sidewalk might be above or below the curb level, the contractor is scheduled to "finish it off as best he can."

Lenient on Sidewalks

"This council has been very lenient in regard to sidewalks," Deardorff pointed out, "and it plans to remain that way. No one need complain about sidewalks in connection with the street. We could have forced everyone to re-lay his sidewalk where necessary to make it come even with the new curb the highway is to put down, but we felt that would be unnecessary and we believe that by finishing off from the sidewalk to the curb at best we will have a usable job. We actually had no curb line before, but the state highway will not put in the street without a curb. Now we will have a curb line and in the future we will have something to lay our sidewalks by. Before this sidewalks were switched around to suit steps or other features about the owners' houses."

Two items discussed by council were postponed until a special meeting at 7 o'clock this evening. In the course of attempting to dig a ditch for a drain from the center square section, the contractor's men tore out the end of a stone culvert running about 90 feet to a point between the old hotel and the old hotel stable. The torn out section showed that most of the entire drain is in bad shape, the councilmen said. The contractor said he would replace the part torn out as it was, but said at the council session he feared that "in a few years the remainder will cave in." To replace the culvert with a metal pipe three feet high and four feet wide will cost about $1,000 but council held that if the cost is not too high it would be well to do the entire job now while the machinery is in Biglerville. The contractor agreed to do the job at $2 per foot above the cost of the pipe, if council wanted it done. He is to meet with council tonight with exact figures showing the cost.

Discussion On Alleys

Council also put off to tonight decision on the installation of "aprons" in public and ordained alleys in the borough. The council members asked Smith to present figures on the cost of placing a concrete or macadam "apron" into all public alleys entering unto the main street. The borough has about 17 alleys, along Main street, it was announced at the session, and Smith said his price to put concrete entrances into the alleys would be about $43 per alley. Council seemed agreed that all alleys that are lying between concrete walks should be provided with concrete entrances by the borough but did not immediately decide whether to have the "aprons" placed immediately in alleys that are not now adjoining concrete walks or whether the council should wait until the property holders along the alley placed a walk and then put in the "apron."

mosquitoes. The committee was instructed to contact the Musselman company and other companies in the town to see if they would help by spraying their own properties. The committee was also given authority to act on the matter and to have the town sprayed by air or from the ground as it sees fit.

Bills totalling $478.38 were approved and two complaints were handled. One letter of complaint referred to weeds on the property of Edward Minter. The Texas Lunch kept its record unblemished by defeat Thursday evening by crushing the Recreation softball team in a Community league game on the high school field 13-5.

Bert Larkin collected three hits to pace the lunchmen's 16-hit attack while Moser poled two of the seven hits secured by the Recreation nine.

The Stanton Legion's hard hitting team finally crashed into the win column after seven successive defeats by blanking the Moose 7-0 in the nightcap on the high school field.

A big second inning which netted 10 runs gave the State Highway a 14-1 victory over the Elks in the opener on the college field. The roadmen smashed out 19 hits, including homers by Altmore, G. Fair and March. Meanwhile the Elks could collect but four hits off Fair. The victory kept the Highway but one-half game back of the Texas Lunch.

Knox's Store suffered its second straight setback by dropping an 8-1 decision to the Lentz Legion in the second game on the college field. The Legion sewed up the contest with five tallies in the third frame. Tawney pitched effectively for the victors and gave up the lone run in the first frame on hits by Raffensperger, B. Redding and J. Redding.

This evening at 8 o'clock a meeting of league officials and umpires will be held at the Moose home. Final adoption of rosters will be one of the main items of business.

JOHNNY SAIN BEATS CARDS; GIANTS LOSE

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn once again are being called the Mr. Right and Mr. Left of the Boston Braves' pitching staff.

Sain, the righthander, pitched the Braves into second place last night by beating the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-2 in a night game at St. Louis.

It was the Braves' fifth straight victory and second in a row over the Cardinals. Spahn, the lefthander, stopped the Red Birds, 11-5, Wednesday night for his fifth win and fourth in his last six starts. He was knocked out once during this skid but wasn't charged with the loss.

Leaders Are Bunched

The Braves are only a half game behind the first place New York Giants and two percentage points ahead of the Cards and Pittsburgh Pirates who are tied for third place. The Giants were beaten, 6-4, by the last place Cubs in a day game at Chicago while the Pirates turned back the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, in a night contest at Pittsburgh.

The American League's front-running Cleveland Indians took a 15-7 pounding from the Red Sox in a day game at Boston. The loss ended a five-game Cleveland winning streak and cut their margin to three games over the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics.

Bobby Feller started for Cleveland but was routed in the third inning when the Red Sox jammed eight runs home.

Righthander Joe Dobson went the distance for Boston, scattering nine hits to post his seventh triumph of the year.

The Athletics also enjoyed a big inning in trouncing the Detroit

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

The Williamsport Tigers edged Scranton out of first place in the Eastern Baseball League today, with the help of the cellar-dwelling Elmira Pioneers.

The Tigers took a half-game lead by trouncing the Wilkes-Barre Barons last night, 8 to 1, while the Pioneers were humbling the Miners 10-5, at Scranton.

The third-place Albany Senators continued to dog the tracks of the two leaders with a 2-1 triumph over the Binghamton Triplets at the New York state capital.

The Blue Sox and the Hartford Chiefs struggled through 23 innings in a double bill at Utica, with the 1947 pennant winners taking both games. The Sox had to toil for 14 innings to win the opener, 8-7, and then took the nightcap over the regulation distance, 16-2.

Minneapolis, June 11 (AP) — Monte Kennedy, 26-year-old southpaw, claimed a berth in baseball's higher ranks today after pitching a no-hit, no-run game. His Minneapolis teammates won 14-0 from Louisville in the American association here last night.

Kennedy topped off the performance by striking out the last three men to face him in the ninth inning — pinchhitter Tex Aids, Ken Chapman and Auggie Bergamo.

Tigers, 10-4. Philadelphia pushed seven runners home in the fourth inning.

Philadelphia now trails the second place Yanks by four percentage points. The Yanks' scheduled game with the Chicago White Sox in New York was postponed because of rain.

The Washington Senators triumphed 5-4 over St. Louis Browns in a night game at Washington when Frank Biscan walked Mark Christman with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth to force in the deciding run.

The Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia Phillies were idle.

NEW COACH FOR CARLISLE HIGH

Bruce Fisher, head coach of football at Bedford high school for the last three years, has accepted the position of head coach and teacher at Carlisle high school, it was announced Thursday afternoon by Superintendent John S. Cartwright.

Fisher, who was accompanied by his wife and two children to Carlisle, will succeed Clarence B. Hendrickson, Jr., who resigned in April to accept a similar post at Lancaster.

The Bedford coach, who coached at Fennell before taking his present position, turned out strong football teams at Bedford the last two years, employing largely a razzle-dazzle style from the T-formation and the single wing.

Fisher, one of the early applicants for the Carlisle berth, was offered the position after Jack Lewis, Minersville high coach, was elected to the post and then, after accepting the job, resigned to remain at Minersville.

It is believed the school board offered Fisher the same salary tendered Lewis, $3,600, of which $2,700 will be for teaching mathematics and $900 for coaching.

Fisher met the assistant coaches here Thursday, along with a number of players who will be available next year.

ZALE REGAINS TITLE THROUGH 3RD ROUND KO

By TED SMITHS

Newark, N. J., June 11 (AP) — The champion who came back, Tony Zale, charted a fighting future today over the prostrate form of Rocky Graziano.

Zale, the underdog, regained the world's middleweight title by knocking out Graziano, just as he predicted he would, in the third round of their third encounter.

Although 34, Zale immediately proclaimed he would not retire. He offered to fight all comers and declared:

"I feel like I'm going the other way again — back to youth."

Marcel Cerdan of France was the boxer mentioned as Zale's probable next opponent, providing Cerdan takes back the European title from Cyrille Delannott of Belgium July 10.

Both of the previous fights between the poised, silent Zale and the rough and rugged Graziano went six rounds, but Zale needed only half that last night. He floored Graziano after less than a minute of the first round, then lost the second when Rocky came surging back.

But in the third Zale was absolute master. He downed Graziano for the count of seven, twice had him hanging on the ropes, and ended matters with a tremendous left to the head after 1:08 minutes. In between all this punishment Graziano kept on swinging.

The crowd numbered 21,497 in Ruppert stadium, paid a gross of $335,646 which was brought to $405,646 by $45,000 for radio and $25,000 for movie rights. Television was banned by the promoters.

Zale weighed 158½ and Graziano 158½ for the match, set to go 15 rounds.

Graziano was numbed, bruised and baffled after he was revived and taken to his dressing room. He received a concussion and for a time his reflexes were gone.

However, he was pronounced "absolutely okay" early today by his manager, Irving Cohen.

Graziano said he never got over the first punch which Zale landed — a left to the temple.

"I never even remembered the last round," he said.

Nine teams are still in the running for the major league flags today as the greatest of all baseball campaigns roars past the two-thirds mark.

The list includes Cleveland, Philadelphia, Boston and New York in the American league, and Boston, Brooklyn, St. Louis, New York and Pittsburgh in the National.

Only two and a half games separate the first four clubs in the American, while six and a half games separate the first five teams in the senior circuit.

Braves Slipping Fast

At the moment, the Indians and Braves are on top, but neither position is secure. Only a matter of percentage points separates the Tribe from Connie Mack's amazing Athletics. The Braves, who boast a three-game lead, are slipping fast. A month ago they enjoyed an eight game bulge.

By splitting a twilight night doubleheader with Washington while the Tigers were defeating the Indians, 7-3, in Detroit, the A's tied Cleveland for first in games won and lost. However, since they've played six more games and could do no better than get an even break in them, the A's trail the Tribe by six percentage points. After the Senators won yesterday's opener, 8-2, the A's came back to win, 11-2.

The Red Sox moved past New York into third place, two games off the pace, by downing the Yankees, 9-6, in New York. The New Yorkers dropped into fourth place, two and a half games behind the leaders.

Feller Loses 13th

The Braves lost ground to each of their pursuers when they were beaten by the Giants in Boston, 6-5. The Dodgers whipped the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2, in Brooklyn to take second place from the idle Cardinals by a fraction of a point. They also shaved Boston's margin to three games. The fourth place Giants are five games behind and the fifth place Pirates who trounced Chicago, 5-1, in Pittsburgh, are six and a half games off the pace.

In the only other game yesterday, the St. Louis Browns advanced within a game of sixth place by vanquishing the last place Chicago White Sox, 3-1.

Bobby Feller, trying for his 12th victory, went down to his 13th defeat instead when he was clubbed for eight hits and five runs in the six innings he worked. Young Ted Gray of the Tigers struck out 10 in the seven and one-third innings he

Margiotti Turns To Horse Racing

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 11 (AP)—Famed criminal Attorney Charles J. Margiotti is going into horse racing because he says he wants "to give" a top notcher his chance to run.

The horse is El Mono, four year old chestnut stallion, now barred because of his owner's lack of a license.

Margiotti has leased El Mono until the end of 1949 from owner Daniel "Dutch" Lamont, Altoona merchant, who bought the thoroughbred for $10,000 in July of 1947.

Last winter, El Mono gave the racing world a start by beating the $25,000 McLennan handicap at Hialeah and by defeating both Armed and Assault in the Widener handicap. He won $65,000 in two weeks.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

In their last 49 innings of Eastern league play the Albany Senators have been scored on just twice.

The Wilkes-Barre Barons scored a run last night in the second inning of their second game. It was the Barons' only score. Johnny Lanning shut them out 1-0 in the opener, a five-hitter that was his eighth win. The second game, a five-hitter for Russ Needham, ended 4-1.

The Scranton Miners kept a firm hold on second place by winning 4-2 and 5-4 over Hartford.

The Elmira Pioneers took their first game, 3-1, then the Utica Blue Sox triumphed, 9-4.

Williamsport, down in the second division, moved up within two and a half games of the fourth-place Hartford Chiefs with a 7-4 win over Binghamton.

pitched to rack up his second victory in as many starts. Pat Mullin's 15th home run in the fifth produced three runs and pinned the loss on Feller.

29th For Kiner

A crowd of 67,691 saw the Red Sox come from behind with five runs in the eighth to defeat the Yankees. Vern Stephens' double off Vic Raschi with the bases loaded was the big blow. Tex Hughson, pitching in relief, was the winner.

Trailing 3-0, the Giants scored four runs in the seventh, added two more in the top of the eighth, then staved off a Boston rally in the last half of the inning to win.

Pee Wee Reese's home run with two mates aboard in the first inning was all the Dodgers needed to defeat the Phillies as Rex Barney permitted only five hits for his 16th victory.

Ralph Kiner banged a two-run homer in the first inning, his 29th, to get the Pirates off to a good start. The Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds were not scheduled.

HANOVER HORSE FAVORED TO WIN HAMBLETONIAN

Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—Opinions were a dime a dozen today as a field of 11 of the world's finest three-year-old trotters prepared to break the barrier for the 23rd Hambletonian Stakes.

This old capital of the sport was jam packed with thousands of the racing faithful awaiting the 2 p. m. (EST) post-time for the classic. Harrison Hoyt's Demon Hanover is expected to be sent away in the favorite role.

The wise heads wouldn't go completely overboard for Hoyt, the Bethel, Conn., hatmaker who shelled out $2,600 for Demon as a yearling. Conceding that he had "the horse," they pointed to Rollo, pride of L. Dale Schaffer's Cold Stream stud, Lexington, Ky.

Four Unknowns

Hoyt, calm despite his amateur status, said he believed he had the best horse, while other entries had an edge in driving experience. "But, we all make mistakes," he said. "I know we can beat some of them, for we've done it. Then, there are four horses we haven't met, and so there you are."

The four are Rollo, Madison Hanover, owned by W. H. Strang, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Egan Hanover, the pride of the C. M. Saunders stable, from Toledo, Ohio; and Adeline Hanover, the flashy filly owned by T. J. Zornow of Pittsford, N. Y.

W. N. Reynolds, Winston-Salem, N. C., tobacco man, is trying this time with Judge Moore, a consistent trotter, whom many think isn't fast enough.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)

The Trenton Giants blasted out a double win over the Harrisburg Senators, 13-7 and 10-4, last night to creep to within one game of the pace setting Blue Rocks in the Interstate league.

Bob Easterbrook, Trenton centerfielder, had a field day, collecting four hits in four times at bat in the first game and four for five in the nightcap. Don Robertson went the distance for Trenton in the second game, chalking up his 14th win of the season against four losses.

The Blue Rocks, meanwhile, defeated the Sunbury Reds 9-2 in the first game of a twin bill but were deadlocked 4-4 in the nightcap when the contest was called because of the curfew law.

The last place Hagerstown Owls continued their domination over Lancaster, defeating the Red Roses 6-5 for the sixth straight time.

York and Allentown divided in their doubleheader. York eked out a 1-0 win in the opener and Allentown captured the afterpiece 5-3 thanks to Larry Claffone's 14th home run of the season with one aboard in the eighth inning.

Today's schedule: York at Allentown, Wilmington at Sunbury, Trenton at Harrisburg (3) and Hagerstown at Lancaster.

Today's Talk

ON GIVING BOOKS AWAY

Most of our knowledge comes from books, people and observation. Both my father and my mother were great lovers of books, so I too early formed the habit of reading them. The first book I ever read was Louisa Alcott's "Old Fashioned Girl." I loved it so well that it was a long time before I could read another book, for I thought that no other book could ever come up to that one!

When in school the town library was my club, as well. Then, as I could afford it, I began to collect books for my own library until today they are housed by the thousands at my home and office. They are the best friends that anyone can have, for they never desert, betray or fail one. My greatest joy, however, at this time of my life is in the giving away of books to those who I know will love them as I have.

I always feel, when I have given a book away, that I have given something of myself. The distribution of good books is always a happy event, no matter how or where celebrated. A book is the shadow of a person. And that shadow remains long after the writer of it has ceased to write. The moment that I pick up a great book to read its author lives for me.

Nothing pleases me more than to learn that a book which I have loved is also loved by someone else. Every book given away is a bond of good will. Doubly endeared is a book that is given to one by a friend or author. I have many such in my library. Every once in a while I buy a book from a second-hand place with an inscription in it — "Love from Mother." So many mothers not only give themselves away, but many books, as well.

Some of my choicest treasures in books, in their rare first editions, have been given to institutions where they become available to researchers and writers, as well as to lovers of the same books that have enriched my life. It makes me feel that through this process I have helped to add to the happiness of many whom I shall never know.

One never knows how far a good book given away may shed its light! It may even take a glow around the world!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "So Pleasant."

Find My Killer

By MANLY WELLMAN

Chapter 2

J. D. Thatcher had a dark blue convertible coupe, well kept and faster than I like. Two or three things make my back hair stand up. Ever since that jeep turned over with me, a speeding car is one of the things. We made nine blocks in about 12 seconds and I had tired places around the jaws and eyes where my face had screwed itself up tight.

J. D. Thatcher pulled up to the curb in front of a big brick building. "The body's at this mortuary," she said. "Would you mind—that is, they might know me and object—"

The gulp in the middle gave her away. I was glad to learn that she wasn't so tough as to like the sight of corpses. Making no crack, I got out and went in.

In the front office sat two men, a short, sleek fellow in a toupée behind a desk, and across from him a taller, leaner one. This man had a heavy pink face, bone-rimmed glasses, and the kind of frizzled blond hair that never shows the gray.

"Assistant coroner," I said, crisp and short, "Want to look at Ealing's body?"

The man with the glasses turned in his chair. He stared through lenses like the lids off of two pyrex casseroles. I saw that his clothes were costly, cut young and snappy, as if he might wear them to dance in.

"I'm Dr. Stokes, Dr. Carl Stokes," he told me. "Mr. Ealing's personal physician and closest friend. I came here to arrange for funeral services and burial. I was told that the autopsy and inquest would be only a formality, mere routine."

"That's right," I fobbed him off. "Just routine. This is part of it." The toupée-topped man opened a door. "Dale" he called. And to me, "Go on in. Dale will show you."

Richard Ealing had been middle-aged and in good physical condition generally, but with considerable gray in the brown hair. His face was tanned and strong-looking, even in death. Crowding forty-eight years of age, I decided. The bullet hole was a couple of inches to the left of the breastbone, rather uneven, almost half an inch across, and powder-singed around the edges.

"His face looks calm," I told the boy named Dale. "Most suicides grit their teeth to get up enough nerve."

"You must be new in town," replied Dale, "or you'd know that Richard Ealing had plenty of nerve for anything."

I studied the wound. "It must have been a .45 slug. Did it tear a big hole in the back when it came out?"

Dale shook his head. "No. It's still in there, probably in the heart. The medical examiner will hoe it out tonight when he makes the autopsy. The cops say it was a little gun."

He cocked his head on one side. "He seems to have been fooling with that gun, maybe cleaning it. That's why it looks funny, a gun accident when he was an expert."

"Expert?"

"Hundred percent. Head of the class. The cops used to call him in for ballistics work before they got their own man."

If the gun was little, I told myself, the bullet was big, anyway. "Thanks, Dale," I said, "you've been a help."

I went out and got into the car. "Anything?" asked J. D., stepping on the starter.

"Not much, but some. Is this Mrs. Ealing pretty?" I asked.

"They call her that," J. D. answered, and shrugged one shoulder. "She married Ealing about four years back. Why?"

"Ealing wasn't any chicken any more," I said. "Pretty young wife, honeymoon over — maybe she wasn't as happy as she'd expected to be."

"You're psychic, Jack. You took the words right out of my subconscious."

We were skimming north along a boulevard. "I suppose we're going to Ealing's house," I ventured.

"Psychic again."

J. D. stood on the step, talking to a youngish man in a gray suit. He was dark, smooth and almost my size — a trifle plump, but no softy. His black moustache was small and thick, and made him look slightly like the earlier photos of Ernest Hemingway. His shoulders filled the door from side to side, and he was shaking his well-combed head at J. D.

"But I helped Mr. Ealing with his will," she was saying insistently. "Mrs. Ealing is putting her affairs in my hands, Miss Thatcher," he replied. "As to the will, with Mrs. Ealing's approval I'll come to your office and get it."

I walked up behind J. D. "Look sister," I said gruffly, "don't you know that people can't just barge in on a household where there's been a death?"

She swung around, stared at me, and almost choked. I flashed that Williamstown badge.

"I'm from the station," I said. "Like this gentleman says, nobody comes in or out without official okay. Now run along, please."

She opened the bluest of those blue eyes, as if she was sighting at me along a gun. She understood, but she was burning. She gave a little toss of the head and walked away. Not once did she look back.

PLAN LAVISH ENTERTAINMENT

Philadelphia, June 11 (P)—Democratic planners today listed a lavish entertainment program for the ladies of the '48 National convention.

The ladies—and there are more women than men voters in the United States—will be treated to such assorted female delights as teas, tours, receptions, musicales and fashion shows.

Most unusual of the functions devised by the Democratic National committee and Mayor Bernard Samuel's arrangements committee is a fashion show which will be presented by Lit Brothers Department store.

On display will be authentic costumes worn throughout the history of the nation at each of the various political conventions. The women will also have a chance to try out the latest in millinery fashions.

Several top designers will be in attendance. Formal opening of the conclave is set for 12:30 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, Monday, July 12. A three-day pre-convention entertainment program also is planned.

New York, June 11 (P)—Clear weather, a fast track and Citation appeared to be sure things for the 80th running of the $100,000-added Belmont stakes tomorrow.

Yet, strangely enough, trainers of the so-called "Opposition" didn't seem overly concerned today about the Calumet farm favorite, who has whipped almost all at one time or another.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Memorial Exercises: Gettysburg paused and prayed on Friday afternoon, joining its solemn memorial services with those of countless others throughout the United States in paying the last tribute to Warren G. Harding, twenty-ninth President of his country, before his body was laid away for its eternal rest in the little cemetery at Marion, Ohio.

Harding, the citizen, and Harding, the statesman, were lauded in addresses from the rostrum in the National Cemetery here, by Rev. Dr. A. E. Wagner and George J. Benner, Esq.

While Mr. Benner was speaking, the attention of the large gathering was directed toward a small group of uniformed men who were led to seats on the rostrum. General Gouraud, commander of the French in the Champagne sector over seas, was the center of all eyes. When Mr. Benner had concluded, General Gouraud was introduced and spoke in French, his words being translated to his hearers by an interpreter. When he concluded, the crowd gave him a hearty ovation and the Citizens' Band played the Marseillaise.

A mixed quartet, consisting of Mrs. Mark Eckert, Mrs. H. R. Sisson, Felix Robinson and L. L. Taylor, sang several of the Chief Executive's favorite hymns.

Rev. Father Mark E. Stock acted as master of ceremonies in his uniform as chaplain of the United States army in which capacity he served in the World War.

Rev. Dr. Jacob A. Clutz gave the invocation and Rev. Harry Daniels pronounced the benediction. William Timmins was chief marshal of the procession with John P. Butt, Jr., and Gene Topper as aides. The color guard was composed of Radford Lippy, Ralph Stoner and Joseph Williams. Behind the guard came the members of the Albert J. Lentz post, with Commander William G. Weaver at the head of the column.

Veterans of the Civil War rode in automobiles. O. G. McPherson was in command of a squad of Sons of Veterans Reserves. Robert Hand sounded taps, while the conclave stood at attention.

Wed at Parsonage: At his residence Saturday afternoon, Elder B. F. Lightner united in marriage Charles J. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller, of near Plover's church, and Miss Naomi J. Hummelbaugh, daughter of Wilson Hummelbaugh, Hamiltonban township.

New Troop of Boy Scouts Formed: Organization of Troop 3, Boy Scouts of America, of Gettysburg, has been completed, under the direction of Clyde L. Bream, scoutmaster and Frank Gardner, Senior patrol leader. Members follow:

Buffalo patrol, Jack Knox, leader; Paul Miller, assistant; Richard Small, Kenneth Ehrhart, Joe Sadler, Clarence Wilson and Bud Knox. Eagle patrol, Paul Trostle, leader; Elwood Myers, assistant; Harold Rummel, James Mittinger and Howard Williams.

Wolf patrol, Paul Shaner, leader; Albert Geyer, Robert Small, Francis Emmons, John Rummel and Harry Lease.

Beaver patrol, Willis Weikert, leader; Junior Huber, assistant; Walter Peckman, James Pierce, Fred Stevens and Bud Buohl.

Charles W. Gardner, Frank R. Peckman and Howard C. Mittinger form the executive committee of the new troop.

Gets Assignment: Harold T. Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newman, Franklin street, who recently went into training as a state policeman, has passed the tests and has been assigned to Troop B, with headquarters at Wyoming, this State.

Doubling Thomas' Win: A baseball game ending in a victory for the team captained by Edmund W. Thomas over the picked nine led by John D. Keith by the score of 19 to 11 featured the picnic of members of the Gettysburg Rotary club and

THE UNNOTICED

Most of the work of the world is done by people "behind closed doors," as the saying goes, for they are the unnoticed and unacclaimed. They are the experimenters and discoverers in laboratories, the makers of the cars we drive in and of the things with which we furnish our homes, the ones who run our railroads and carry our mail. In fact, it is difficult to name any industry that does not have as its background these unheralded ones.

I see the men, tearing up heavily trod streets in my city, many of them working mostly underground, and I wonder what would happen if the thousands of lines of wire and pipe were not kept in constant repair. The wonder is that the city moves on at all—its people thinking little about it. Yet it does, year in and year out. The unnoticed—except for a glance or so—do the job, and they do it well.

Take the milk man, for example. Few of us ever see him. He comes while most of us sleep! But just let him fail to appear and he gets our notice. Electrical engineers, men of the mines, train dispatchers, teachers in the little country schools, tillers of the soil, the "leg men" on newspapers, those who shine our shoes, and those who trim our hair—what millions of these unnoticed folks there are!

How important then it is that we pay our tribute to all who serve no matter to whom we pay it, or where. None of us is important only as we do and serve. Such a hungry world of men and women! Hungry for more than food—hungry for love, appreciation and encouragement.

Just take note of every "thank you" that you give out. It's like a spark to light given to one. It so far outshines the proverbial "tip." It is no mark of servitude. It's a mark of kinship and human fellowship. Made universal it can even push wars aside! It is suggestive of unity and understanding. Don't think that a "thank you" is never noticed!

Most of us get into a hospital during our lives. Hospitals are nearly always filled. But what service is rendered there. Nurses, rather expected than noticed, giving of their strength and cheer, and never too tired to give an extra amount of encouragement to one gravely ill. What a debt we owe to the unnoticed!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "A Place for Things."

MAN MADE TORMENT

He'd lived an easy life. His dad Could well afford to keep him clad.
He'd neither thirst nor hunger known,
And when to manhood he had grown,
The cares he had to bear were those

That every man in business knows.
In short, as nearly as can be,
His years from heartache had been free,
But when he thought himself well off

He joined a club and took up golf.

Griefs inescapable must fall,
As time goes on, to one and all.
There is no life of perfect bliss.
Troubles there are that none can miss,

But man with these is not content.
The game of golf he must invent,
With greens and fairways, four-inch holes,

To vex men's minds and plague
their souls,
And add to all the natural woes
The torment every golfer knows.

ANNEXATION OF GUARD BY ARMY IS BEING URGED

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP)—A drastic revision of the nation's traditional military policy was urged today to permit the army to annex the National Guard.

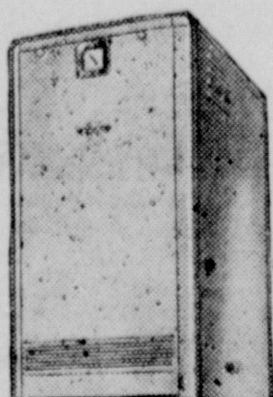

This politically explosive recommendation by a special defense department advisory committee would double the army's current strength of about 600,000. It would, in effect, serve as a short-term manpower substitute for universal military training.

The suggested change in guard status was part of a general recommendation that each of the armed services should have a single federal reserve force on which to draw as needed in event of a national emergency.

Opposition Flares

The board headed by Assistant Army Secretary Gordon Gray reported that, judged on the tests of national security, the National Guard and other reserve groups "are not now capable of participating effectively in major combat operations."

Secretary of Defense Forrestal appointed the six-man study commission last November. He said the report at present does not represent the defense department's views and he turned it over to three civilian

Ex-Bank Head Is Suing Government

Philadelphia, Aug. 11 (AP)—The former president of the closed First National Bank and Trust Co., of Easton has brought suit against the U. S. government charging mismanagement.

The suit was filed yesterday in the name of Clinton T. Hilliard, who said he represented 400 stockholders. Acting as counsel were Attorney General T. McKen Chidsey and former Governor John C. Bell.

Named defendants in the suit were the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., and Comptroller of Currency Preston Delano. Hilliard charged them with operating the bank—after it was closed by the FDIC in 1943—in an "inefficient, illegal, wasteful and extravagant manner."

The suit said also there was no justification in closing the bank, stating there had been no runs on the First National and the bank had been able to meet all demands of creditors. The agency, in ordering the bank closed, said it was using unsafe and unsound banking practices.

chiefs of the armed forces for further study.

Opposition to the annexation proposal followed quickly after release of the report.

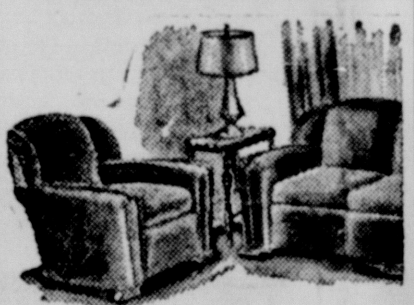

"We of the National Guard * * * will fight to the last ditch," Brig. Gen. Charles H. Grahl said last night.

Grahl, the adjutant general for Iowa, told a reporter in Cedar Rapids: "We will fight the plan through Congress. I think there are enough former governors in Congress to defeat it. I am confident all the states will join hands in fighting this thing."

The advisory board said the National Guard exceeds peacetime military requirements of the states and "with its combat organization and powerful armament is not suitable for state missions involving riot or other civil uprisings."

To replace the guardsmen, the report proposed that the states set up a new type guard unit "to meet important local demands of war in the atomic age and the techniques of the fifth column." Built somewhat on the order of the British "home guards," the new state guard would be composed of deferred men and those ineligible for regular military service for over-age or other reasons.

TRUMAN VIEWS FLOODED AREA; HITS CONGRESS

Olympia, Wash., June 11 (AP)—President Truman recessed his bombardment of Congress temporarily today to fly over the Columbia river flood area but said he would keep "pouring it on" until the November election.

His face flushed from campaigning by open car and his voice a trifle husky, the chief executive said he would carry his case from one end of the country to the other and added:

"Then, if you people want to continue the policies of the 80th Congress, that will be your funeral."

He made this statement last night before a crowd at Olympia's Sylvester park at the end of a strenuous automobile tour in which he blamed Congress for high prices, the housing shortage and lack of interest in labor's welfare.

"Special Interest" Congress
In off-the-cuff talks at Bremerton, Tacoma and Olympia and in his formal speech at Seattle, the president:

Called Congress a "special interest Congress."
Told the voters they should not be "suckers" for a Congress which will be "a disgrace to this country" if it fails to vote price, housing and labor welfare laws.

Said a lot of Congressmen were listening "to the greatest gathering of lobbyists in Washington that has ever been formed in this country."

The President conferred with Major General Philip B. Fleming, federal works administrator, and Secretary of Interior Krug on co-ordinated federal efforts to help relieve flood distress.

Mr. Truman expressed deep regret last night that his engagement at Berkeley, Calif., for a speech Saturday would prevent his attending the funeral of Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach, set for Seattle, also on Saturday afternoon.

URGES UMT

Towanda, Pa., June 11 (AP)—Passage of a universal military training act was urged last night by Department Commander William Windsor of the American Legion. "If the measures supported by the Legion," he said at a joint meeting of the Locomotive-Clinton-Center and Bradford-Tioga-Potter council of the auxiliary, "had not been shot full of holes, sabotaged and sunk, this country now would have a very large force of trained men and would need fear no nation."

Philadelphia, June 11 (AP)—Joseph L. Durkin, 70, retired secretary of the Home Life Insurance company of America, incorporated, died yesterday in Misericordia hospital after a long illness. A native Philadelphian, Durkin also was a former secretary of the Mutual Guarantee Building and Loan association in which he started as an office boy.

Philadelphia, June 11 (AP)—Both of Pennsylvania's senators, Myers (D) and Martin (R), voted with the majority yesterday when the Senate passed the draft bill by a vote of 78-10.

HOUSING BILL MOVES ALONG

Washington, June 11 (AP)—A surprise Democratic victory in one Republican-dominated House committee today put the fate of long range housing legislation squarely up to a second GOP-controlled group.

Eleven Democrats, voting solidly and with the help of three Republicans, took full charge of the 27-member House Banking committee late yesterday. That body approved, by a 14 to 13 vote, all the major provisions of the Senate-passed Taft-Ellender-Wagner Housing bill.

The T-E-W measure aims at bringing about the construction of 15,000,000 homes in 10 years — including 600,000 government-financed, low-rent dwelling units to be operated by local public housing authorities. Sponsors say the main emphasis, however, is on private enterprise, with various government aids.

The housing issue now moves to the House Rules committee, which must clear all controversial legislation before it can be brought to a vote on the floor.

Rep. Monroney (D-Okla.) said the bill might be "bottlenecked" there. Some Republicans indicated, however, it will get a green light.

Refrigerator Is Death Trap For Two

Philadelphia, June 11 (AP)—A discarded refrigerator into which two four year-old children had crawled, became a death trap when the door closed behind them, causing them to suffocate.

The bodies of Nancy Murta and Samuel Mitchell, both of suburban Lanerch, were discovered yesterday he said has indirectly caused a drop in the plant's number of employees.

Interesting News Of Upper Adams Countians And Their Enterprises

MILK FUTURE IS CAUSE FOR CONCERN HERE

The local milk situation is continuing in a state of unrest.

Locally milk dealers are worried and admit it—about the possibility of two, possibly three, more increases in the price of milk and an increase in consumer resistance to the increased cost.

That "consumer resistance" is taking the form of fewer purchases of bottled milk in stores, say several of the dealers. Mr. and Mrs. Gettysburg are continuing to buy as much milk as ever from the dairyman who delivers in the morning to the door, but the dealers say, little Johnny is being sent to the store less frequently to buy that extra quart or two of milk when the home supply runs low.

New Milk Outlet
While "consumer resistance" has not been felt so greatly locally, in nearby Chambersburg, according to news reports, the resistance is steadily increasing and people are buying much less milk.

Added to the worry of local dealers is the decision of a New York concern to construct a milk receiving station at Greencastle to funnel Franklin county milk into the higher paying New York city milk marketing area. Stanley Jones, Greencastle, an agent for the New York brokerage firm of Hovey, Stanton and Company, Inc., has announced that 40 milk producers in Franklin have already signed contracts to sell to the New York concern and 175 additional farmers have expressed interest in the new venture.

That will probably have a direct influence on the price of milk in Gettysburg and Adams county, local dealers pointed out. With the New York concern paying higher prices to the farmer for his milk Franklin county dealers will have to appeal to the state milk control commission to grant them a raise in price to meet the New York price. Adams county is part of the same milk control area as Franklin and a price increase granted to Franklin would also hold good in Adams, and in the Hanover area.

May Mean More Ice Cream

Just where the price of milk will finally land is a problem that is bothering the dealers and many other countians. One problem involving the dealers right now is the desire of school systems to set up a budget for the coming year. If they supply milk at cafeterias and the like, the schools have to know how much it will cost them.

The answer local dealers were giving today was "If there is a price rise in October on top of the one scheduled for this month, and if the new Greencastle plant forces another rise on top of that? Well we just can't tell what the answer may be."

One answer might be more ice cream—if consumers refuse to buy the milk at the price set by the commission, one dealer said, noting that unused milk would have to be made into something else to get rid of it.

State Is Leader In Yield Of Pea Crop

Pennsylvania farmers this season lead those of all other states in yield per acre of green peas grown for canning and freezing, according to the federal-state surveys announced by the state Department of Agriculture.

With 2,800 pounds of shelled peas per acre indicated July 15, Pennsylvania is 300 pounds ahead of New Jersey and Utah, states with the next highest acre yield, the survey disclosed.

Pea growers of Pennsylvania held the same honor two years ago with an average yield of 3,040 pounds of shelled peas per acre. Last year the state was in fourth place with 2,170 pounds.

Total production of green peas for processing in the state this year is

Poor Honey Crop Forecast For 1948

The outlook for honey production in Pennsylvania is not too good this season and will be below average unless weather is favorable for fall flowers as a source of nectar, the state Department of Agriculture reported today from federal-state surveys.

A reduction of 21,000 in the number of bee colonies from last year was revealed in reports of beekeepers. This year there are 174,000 colonies of bees reported in Pennsylvania, compared with 195,000 a year earlier. Approximately 50,000 were estimated at 15,400 tons compared with 16,000 last year and the 10-year average, 1937-46, of 13,160 tons. This year's average was 11,000 against 15,300 last year.

lost since last July, including 36,000 colonies lost during the severe winter months. These losses were partly offset by the addition of 29,000 new spring colonies.

Weather conditions during spring months were not favorable for bee activity, being too cold and wet for flights most of the time.

Hogan And Worsham Set U.S. Open Pace
Los Angeles, June 11 (AP)—Tournament favorite Ben Hogan and defending title holder Lew Worsham were equal pace setters today as the field teed off in the second round of the U. S. Open Golf Championships.

Their opening day 67s chopped four shots off par for the long and exacting Riviera course, but the sterling links performances told only half the story. The other half was the exclusive property of Worsham, the Oakmont, Pa. pro with the jutting chin and a determination that crossed up experts for the time being.

Worsham won the crown a year ago at St. Louis and won it the hard way. He beat out Sam Snead in the playoff after the two had tied with a near record 72-hole total of 282.

In spite of that fine showing, Worsham's stock had fallen when the first round firing began here yesterday. He was conceded only the barest chance to repeat.

ESTHER'S ZEAL FOR HER PEOPLE

By Rev. Howard R. Gold, D. D., Margaret C. Gold

Esther 4:10-17; 9:20-22, 26-27. Memory selection: Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? Esther 4:14.

Everyone is well acquainted with the story of Esther, heroic Queen of Persia and how she interceded for her people. The Jews were in a desperate situation then as they are today. The theme of the whole book of Esther is patriotic rather than religious. It is really historical fiction designed to explain the beginning of the Feast of Purim.

Probably the purpose of the book was to keep alive the patriotic fervor of the Jews who had passed through years of oppression. Critics object because the name of God does not appear but religious feeling is implied for certainly Queen Esther and Mordecai had faith in God and his willingness to care for his chosen people.

The Drama and Characters

This drama took place 30 years after the reign of Darius under whose patronage the second Temple of Jerusalem was completed. Xerxes was the son of Darius and he is famous in history for his invasion of Greece. He is the king called Ahasuerus in the book of Esther and this story took place after his unsuccessful expeditions. The scene is laid in Shushan, one of the capitals of Persia. The Persian Empire extended from Ethiopia to India and included twelve provinces. Most of the intrigue (and there is plenty) takes place in the lavish court at Shushan.

The characters are well drawn and more interesting than the plot. Four stand out sharply: the king, Ahasuerus, who is cruel and despotic; Mordecai, a courtier and a good Jew but also a master of intrigue; Esther, beautiful Jewish maiden, who became queen and was a woman of judgment and courage; finally, Haman, the king's favorite who plotted against Mordecai to massacre all the Jews.

Danger and Duty

Esther was chosen Queen of Persia because she was charming as well as beautiful. Hadassah was the Jewish name for Esther. Mordecai was her cousin and guardian and had saved the king's life. He offended Haman, the king's prime minister. Haman succeeded in persuading King Ahasuerus to issue a decree to destroy all the Jews. This created a situation for Esther who had concealed her nationality from the king.

Esther in her anxiety sent her chamberlain to Mordecai with a message that she had not been called into the king's presence for 30 days. It was the law of the land that no one ever entered the king's inner court unless called and punishment for such an offence was death. Mordecai's answer came back quickly, "Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house more than all the Jews?" If he did not brave danger and intercede with the king for the lives of her people she would be destroyed herself and would have shirked her duty. Her cousin spurred her on further by saying, "Who knoweth whether thou art not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

That decided Queen Esther. She asked Mordecai to gather together all the Jews in Shushan and request them to fast for three days and nights and she and her maidens would do likewise. They did and after the fast she went to the king's inner chamber expecting punishment, even death. But the king held out his golden scepter, a sign of favor, and promised she would be granted her wish. Her duty to intercede in behalf of her people became a rare privilege, for her name is revered above all other Jewish women.

Jews in the province under King Ahasuerus asking them to celebrate two days yearly in commemoration of Esther's courageous act for her people. The festival is held on the 14th and 15th of Adar, last month of the Jewish year, which corresponds to our February-March. The people were told "that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions (gifts) one to another, and gifts to the poor." The queen who risked her life will always be a heroine in Jewish history.

JUMPER CROPS MAY HELP CUT LIVING COSTS

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP)—Farmers are well on their way today toward applying a cure for high prices for their own products.

Aided by very favorable weather, they are headed for a crop harvest which is expected not only to break production records but to end food shortages and, in time, bring lower prices at the corner stores.

An Agriculture department report yesterday forecast this year's grain production as the largest ever—by wide margin. No longer is there a rain shortage. In fact there will be surplus if latest estimates are true.

This bountiful prospect already has led to a sharp decline in grain prices from the postwar peak of last January.

Other Prices to Follow

Officers said a similar decline in prices of meats, dairy and poultry products will follow as soon as farmers can convert the grains—through livestock feedings—into these finished food items. The effects of this conversion should begin to be felt, they said, no later than next spring.

The department report included the forecast of an amazing corn crop of 3,506,000,000 bushels. This tops the 1946 record by 257,000,000 bushels and last year's very poor one by 1,106,000,000.

The boost in feed supplies will not be limited to corn. Near record crops of oats, and grain sorghums, far-above average crops of barley and an average crop of hay indicate that feed supplies will be the most liberal in history for the livestock available.

Trouble for Government

But while all this spells good news for housewives, it indicates trouble ahead for the government.

Farmers are increasing livestock and poultry numbers, but they will not be able to build up flocks and herds enough to use all the feeds that are forecast.

As a result, much corn and other grains will be offered the government under its price support program. It is not at all unlikely that a year from now the government will have more than $1,000,000,000 tied up in surplus grains, cotton, tobacco, and other crops from this year's harvest.

The Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mine in Idaho, one of the great zinc and silver producers, was discovered in 1886, when a prospector's burro stumbled.

The following are the winners as announced by the judges: Largest doll, first prize, Patricia Spangler, with a jitterbug doll; second prize, Dianne Redding. Smallest doll, first prize, Ellen Jane Baumgardner; second prize, Vicki Feeser. Best foreign doll, Rita Jayne Witmer. The judges announced that they selected the best dressed dolls on the basis of originality and completeness of dress. The first prize was awarded to Patricia Eaves. This doll had a complete hand made dress and undergarments. She wore a flannel coat and cap. The second prize was awarded to Susan Baumgardner. This doll had a complete hand knit outfit including hand made shoes, skirt, blouse, sweater and tam.

Judy Ruggles received first prize for the oldest doll which was 75 years old and Faye Fissel was awarded second prize for the 50-year-old doll. Judy Ruggles also received first prize for the most comical doll, which was Dopey, one of the seven dwarfs, and Joyce Brown received the second prize.

Audrey Ellen Brumbach received first prize for the most unusual entry, a topsy-turvy doll. On the one end was a negro mammy and reversing it was a white girl. Second prize went to Marietta Weikert. Dawn Pettyjohn received first prize for the prettiest doll and Joyce Reaver, second prize. Elizabeth Anne Crouse was awarded the prize for the girl having the most dolls entered, which was seven. Everyone who attended the show was pleased with the interest manifested. The hope was expressed that the doll show will become an annual event.

Commenting on further special activities in connection with this season's playground program, Mr. Evans announced that on Friday, August 20, at 8:30 p. m. preceding the teen-age dance, a scavenger hunt will be held in Crouse park, which will be open to all teen-agers. The teen-agers will be grouped in teams of six, for the scavenger hunt. There will be three boys and three girls on each team.

Another special event to be held in the near future in connection with the playground activities will be tricycle and bicycle races for boys and girls of all ages. The continued cooperation of parents and children is requested so that the remainder of the playground program may be as successful as it has been thus far.

Rotarians Meet

L. Robert Snyder, director of the Littlestown Men's chorus, has announced that at a recent rehearsal for the chorus it was decided to purchase coats for the members. It was also decided to give a public concert in Littlestown, late in the fall, possibly around Thanksgiving. The exact date and place will be announced as soon as plans can be completed. Proceeds from this concert will be used toward payment of the coats.

Littlestown Rotary club members held their weekly meeting Tuesday evening at the Gettysburg Country club, when the Rotary Ann's were their guests. About 40 members and their ladies were in attendance. A few of the members played golf, while the rest of the party made a tour of the buildings and grounds. A picnic lunch was served by Schottie's. An address of welcome was given to the group by Attorney Richard A. Brown, Gettysburg, president of the club. Mr. Brown said, "The Country club is not a local organization but a county-wide project. All persons are welcome at any time, especially to the formal opening which will be held on Thursday, when there will be open house." The program committee of which

Charles Ritter is chairman, was in charge of arrangements for the evening.

At next week's meeting to be held in Schottie's banquet hall, there will be initiation of members. The classification and membership committee consisting of Dr. H. A. Stoner, chairman, Paul Snyder, Luther W. Ritter and Nevaeh Crouse will be in charge of the program.

CATTLE—A fairly broad demand for most all slaughter cattle coupled with lighter than usual receipts resulted in a fairly active trade at generally higher prices. Estimated run fell about 25 per cent short of the arrivals counted in a week ago today and measured a decrease of 32 per cent compared to the same day a year ago. The week to date run was not materially different than the run for the same period last week but the market was closed to trading Monday of last week in observance of Memorial Day so this week's count included receipts for four days compared with three days last week. Compared with the same period in 1947 the count was slightly larger.

Arrivals included the equivalent of four loads of slaughter steers and six loads stocker cattle. Balance of the supply consisted mainly of cows. Only odd lots of mixed yearlings and heifers were included in the arrivals. Slaughter steer supplies were made up of small lots in most cases.
Most offerings fell in the medium to high good, $15.00—$35; odd lots of common and medium, $12—$13. Price schedule generally 50c to 10c in spots 81 higher. A package of good to low-choice 70-lb. mixed steers and heifers, $32.

33. Most of the light supply graded medium to good, $22.50—$30. Selling level for cows strong to mostly 50c with advances of $1 to $1.50. Most of the good grade cows. Most of the good cows, $25—$27. Common and medium, $20.75—$24, and canners and cutters, $14—$20, mostly $15.50 up.

Beef bulls virtually absent but sausage offerings ranged strong to 50c higher. Odd head high-grade sausage bulls, $27.50, but bulk of the good grades, $25—$27.25; common and medium, $21.50—$24.50; few light canners, $17.50. Stock cattle met a moderately active trade at about steady prices.
A few good grade stocker steers and stock calves, $29—$30. Common and medium predominated, $22.50—$27.

CALVES—Demand somewhat improved over earlier in the week for all grades of calves and trading fairly active. Prices fully steady. Good grade calves, $19.25—$25; $24—$28; bulk $25 up. $28. All weights of common and medium, $15—$24, and culls to $10 or below. Weighty slaughter calves were absent.

HOGS—Moved to an early clearance at mostly 50c higher prices compared with Wednesday's trade. The top, however, was only 25c higher. Good and choice 180-225-
lb. barrows and gilts, $25.25—$25.75; 225-250 lb., $24.75—$25.25; 250-275 lb., $23.25
—$23.75; 275-300 lb., $21.75—$22.25; 300-350
lb., $20.75—$21.25; 350-400 lb., $20—$20.50;
few over 400 lb., $19.75—$20.25; 120-140
lb., $23—$23.50; 140-160 lb., $24.50—$25; 160-180 lb., $25—$25.50. Same grade of sows selling 45 lb. and less, $15.75—19.25. Heavier weights to $17.25 and occasionally below. Bulk of all weights sold at the outside quotations. Odd stags, $17.25.

SHEEP—Spring lambs met a moderately active trade at unchanched prices but laughers moved slowly at generally $1 lower price levels. A few lots of good and choice 84-99-lb. spring lambs, $29—30, and some medium 55-75-lb., $26. Good and choice freshly clipped ewes bulked at the top quotation, $9; some mostly good grade washed ewes, $9; common to medium short ewes, $7, and odd culls, $5—6.

New Pied Piper Ready To Aid U. S.; Has Sexy Flute

London, June 11 (AP)—Want a Pied Piper? Britain's got one for export.

John Heywood, stocky, fair-haired, 48-year-old destroyer of rodents, claims to be a real-life version of the legendary Piper who lured the rats and children of Hamelin to their doom back in 1284.

He has invented a puny, wooden flute whose notes, he says, are irresistible to rats. (It doesn't work with kids, though.)

Like the Hamelin flutist, Mr. Heywood is a man of ambition: He wants to go to America and protect dockside Marshall plan cargoes from devouring rodents. And get paid for it, of course.

The big moment for Mr. Heywood, who spent three years perfecting his flute, came Wednesday when he revealed the instrument's "secret" in a British broadcasting corporation radio interview. And he demonstrated—one brief toot.

Has "Sex Appeal"

"My flute," he said, "has sex-appeal."

The mysterious, quivering, high-pitched note which he claims brings rats by the hundreds pouring from sewers and holes is, says Heywood, their mating call.

When the eager rodents respond to his flute, he slaughters them with a club, his bare hands, or, if there are too many, a poison concocted from herbs. Dusk is the best time. The biggest slaughter in one night,

RUSSIAN SPY WORK SLOPPY OR UNLUCKY

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP) — The Russians have been clumsy in their spying, or they're unlucky. In some of it, anyway.

Look at what's happened in Canada, in this country and in Yugoslavia. Take Canada first.

Igor Gouzenko, a lieutenant in the Red army, received special training for work in Canada. He was sent there in 1943 as a cipher clerk in the Russian embassy at Ottawa.

He was assigned to the staff of the military attaché. He worked in a secret room. His job was to code messages sent to Russia, uncode those from Russia.

Sensational Case

In two years of doing that, he found out:

1. The Russian secret police had a spy ring in Canada.

2. His boss, the military attaché, was head of a separate spy ring gathering Canadian military information for Russia.

Ordered to return to Russia in 1945, Gouzenko decided to stay in Canada at any cost. Instead of burning a lot of secret documents he handled, as he had been ordered to, he hid them and saved them.

Then he turned over the batch to the Canadian police. This broke the most sensational spy ring ever uncovered in North America. At least 11 of the Canadians pleaded guilty or were convicted.

Case of Yugoslavia

Now take Yugoslavia. That Communist country, under the dictatorship of Marshal Tito, a long-time Communist, had worked with Russia like a twin brother. Some weeks ago the two countries split. Since it was the first break between two Communist countries, the news was stunning.

Pieces of the story have leaked out, but not all of it. This week Tito told some of it in a letter he sent to members of Yugoslavia's Communist party. He said: The Russians, while they still were bosom pals of the Yugoslavs, had tried to entice some of them to become spies for Russia. And, shades of Gouzenko, one of the men the Russians tried to pull into their spy net was a Yugoslav cipher clerk.

Miss Bentley's Story

In 1944, a year before Gouzenko

YOUTH ADMITS

taken to jail by borough police. He had mounted his scooter and was caught after being forced to the curb on Springs avenue, following a chase, authorities said.

The youth was fingerprinted and questioned at borough police headquarters and then taken to the sub-station of the state police here, where troopers said he admitted to several burglaries in Adams county in the past several weeks and implicated two other Maryland boys.

Among the places the youth admitted to burglarizing were Shoemaker's gasoline station on the Littlestown road; the Hunt Avenue service station, Littlestown road, and the David Oyer service station and garage on Steinwehr avenue, state police said.

State and borough police patrolled borough streets, the battlefield and the Emmitsburg road in a search for the youth who escaped, without success.

The youth under detention here was arrested and fined two weeks ago for operating his motor scooter without a license, state police said.

He had been a member of the American Communist party and had acted as messenger for a Soviet spy ring here. In the ring, were a number of U. S. government employees and officials, some of them important.

Right at this point there's a Russian uproar in New York. There Michael Samarin, a Russian school teacher, has gone to the FBI.

He had been teaching the children of Russians in this country. When he was ordered on July 31 to return to Russia he, like Gouzenko, decided he didn't want to go. So he went to the FBI. The Un-American activities committee wants to hear what Samarin has to say. They've called on him to come here and testify.

All this doesn't mean the Russians haven't done successful spying—practically every country does some. They've just been sloppy—or unlucky—some times.

Air Force Planes Damaged By Tornado

Pyote, Texas, Aug. 11 (AP) — Tornado winds caused "major damage" to many planes at Pyote Air Force base Monday night, the provost marshal said Tuesday.

Several of the planes were blown through fences and off the field, Lt. Everett Phillips of Hutchinson, Kans., said. The storm struck suddenly about 8:30 o'clock.

The major damage was to numerous C-46 twin-engine transports while lesser damage was suffered by a number of B-29's at the field, Lt. Phillips said.

HEAVY LOSS TO WHEAT BY RUST

Harrisburg, Aug. 11 (AP)—Pennsylvania wheat farmers will suffer crop losses amounting to $8,367,000 this year through rust and Hessian fly damage, it was estimated today.

The State Agriculture department said the expected yield was reduced by 3,856,000 bushels during July due to the onslaughts of the insects.

The loss estimate, the department said, was based on the average of $2.17 a bushel which farmers received for new wheat on July 15.

A Federal-state crop survey showed an expected wheat crop of 17,834,000 bushels on August 1. This is 4,462,000 bushels less than the 22,296,000 harvested last year, but only 624,000 under the 1937-46 average.

The southeastern section of the state was hardest hit by rust and fly damage. Yields per acre were so low in that region that the July average of 22.5 bushels was reduced to 18.5 bushels for the state as a whole.

Among other farm crops, corn estimates as of August 1 were for a crop of 65,320,000 bushels, a gain of 2,130,000 over July 1. Oats also showed improvement with the estimate advancing from 25,542,000 to 27,090,000 bushels. Tobacco is indicated at 57,770,000 pounds and potatoes at 19,075,000 bushels, no change from July 1.

TO OPEN CELEBRATION
Reading, Pa., Aug. 11 (AP)—Governor James H. Duff and the mayor of Reading, England, will be on hand Saturday to help open a three-week celebration marking the 200th anniversary of the founding of the city of Reading, Pennsylvania. Governor Duff—together with the Englishman mayor, Herbert Victor Kersey, and Mayor John F. Davis of this city—will officially open the Bicentennial Industrial exposition.

preparation, will work on leaf roller where DDT will not, but here again there is the danger of a residue, he said.

"Apparently nature's biological situation has been upset with DDT," Dr. Pepper said.

Others who discussed the fruit pest situation included Dean Asquith, research entomologist at the Arendtsville field laboratory, Dr. Harold Steiner, former research entomologist at Arendtsville, now farm manager for M. E. Knouse, and M. T. Hartman, county farm agent.

Mr. Hartman pointed out that there is considerable live scale in orchards which will develop pin points on fruit when it is placed in storage. He recommended a Bordeaux 1-400 spray. Bordeaux was also recommended for leaf spot on cherries.

Sign Testimonial

Members of the fruit growers' association signed a testimonial to Dr. Frank N. Fagen, State College, who expects to retire in October after many years of work with orchardists in this state and in Adams county. Similar testimonials are being prepared throughout the state.

President Harvey Raffensperger said, and will be collected in bound volumes for presentation to Dr. Fagen.

Those who are preparing personal letters to be included in the testimonial were asked to send them, unfolded, to Frederic Griest, Jr., secretary, not later than Saturday night.

Peacetime Draft Bill Expected To Pass House; Will Vote By Wednesday

GIVEN OKAY BY SENATE 78-10; TWO-YEAR PLAN

By HOWARD DOBSON

Washington, June 11 (AP)—House Republican leaders stamped an emphatic "must" today on enactment of a peacetime draft law next week.

Encouraged by the whopping 78-to-10 vote the Senate gave its Selective Service revival bill, House supporters were confident of sending a finished measure to President Truman before adjournment.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) told reporters the House bill will be called to the floor Tuesday or Wednesday. He predicted it will pass with only one day of debate. This would contrast with six days and three nights of Senate oratory.

House Rules Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-III) said his committee will meet Monday to vote the House measure "up or down." The bill has been awaiting rules committee clearance since May 7.

Committee Divided

With adjournment tentatively set for a week from Saturday, the bill cannot be debated in the House unless the rules committee approves it.

Hence shortly after the Senate voted in mid-afternoon yesterday, Martin called Allen to a conference. Allen said later Martin had asked him for rules committee "cooperation" in getting the House bill to the floor.

Allen then revised an earlier statement that his committee is divided three ways—four members for the bill, four against, and four undecided.

Allen placed his newest tally at six for and six against. He said he will not change his "no" vote to break the tie but two others on his side may.

New Compromises

There are no fundamental differences between the Senate and House bills, but some provisions will have to be compromised.

Both bills would expire in two years, and both would require two years of military service for enough men from 19 through 25 to bring the armed forces up to full authorized strength.

Amendments voted during Senate debate cut the life of that bill from five years to two, tacked on a House-approved measure revamping the court martial systems of the army and air force, and outlawed the poll tax as a requirement for voting by men inducted under the bill.

Gets 18 Months For Forging Bonds

Philadelphia, June 11 (AP)—John J. Phillips, 45, was given 18 months in prison after pleading guilty to forging and cashing $30,000 in government bonds.

Phillips entered his plea of guilty yesterday after the jury had heard six government witnesses. He was arrested in Topeka, Kans., last March.

He was charged with passing $20,000 worth of bonds stolen from two Texas banks a year ago and illegally cashing $10,000 in bonds taken from the home of Elmer H. Currier of Belmont, Mass.

GOVERNOR DUFF NOT CANDIDATE

Harrisburg, June 11 (AP)—Gov. James H. Duff brought out his heaviest verbal artillery to blast two current political reports:

1. That he is a candidate for president or vice president.

2. That he and backers of Sen. Edward Martin are disputing control of Pennsylvania's 73 convention votes.

To the first report, the governor told newsmen yesterday: "I am not a candidate for anything. The one ambition I have in a political way is to be as good a governor as I can."

To the second, he replied bluntly: "I don't know anything about a fight over delegates."

Duff is chairman of the Pennsylvania delegation and has asked for no commitments on candidates until the convention convenes.

The governor also said there was "not a scintilla of fact" in a report by John O'Donnell, Washington columnist of the New York Daily News that he had been offered the Republican nomination for vice president and that Henry Luce, publisher of Life, Time and Fortune, had promised to publicize him nationally immediately before the GOP convention, June 21.

"That is absolute nonsense," Duff declared.

Jonathan Edwards, 18th Century American theologian, wrote a tract on "The Nature of The Soul" when he was 10 years old and entered Yale College when he was 13.

SHUTDOWN AT FORD COMPANY

Detroit, June 11 (AP)—Assembly line workers in Ford Motor company plants across the nation were in a one-way shutdown today, while a much larger group of General Motors corporation workers faced a week's layoff starting Monday.

About 230,000 production employees are affected by the curtailments, 200,000 of them at GM and 30,000 at Ford.

Another development on the widespread auto-labor front saw the 13-cent hourly wage increase pattern extended to 10,000 hourly-rated employees of the Packard Motor car company. At the same time, the company added from $75 to $200 to the list prices of all its cars, beginning June 14.

The Cio United Auto Workers gave up all other demands on Packard in accepting the 13-cent boost in an agreement extending through August 1, 1950, it was disclosed. The raise becomes effective June 7 if the pact is ratified by members of UAW-CIO Local 190.

SEGREGATION EVILS ASSAILED

New Wilmington, Pa., June 11 (AP)—The white president of a negro college declared last night that the "evils of segregation are reinforcing a false sense of values and retarding the economic development of the south."

The speaker, Dr. J. Reed Miller, the layoffs next week could be blamed on steel shortages resulting from the last coal strike. A lack of production parts was responsible for today's Ford shutdown, company officials said.

president of the Knoxville (Tenn.) college, made the remark in an address before the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in North America, meeting in Westminster college.

"Segregation," continued Dr. Miller, "has presented the negro with a frustration which we can scarcely realize. It has made caste churches instead of Christian churches."

The Rev. Dr. L. J. Shafer, a representative of the Reformed church of America, told the Presbyterians his church has taken tentative steps toward a merger of the two churches.

Dr. Shafer said a draft of a proposed merger has been adopted by his church. The Presbyterians will vote on a similar draft later in the week, with final action by both churches slated for next week. The Presbyterian group has about 200,000 members, the Reformed church about 175,000.

IRONWORKER IS KILLED IN DEATH OF GIRL FRIEND

Gettysburg, Pa., June 11 (AP) — A 19-year-old ironworker was killed with murder last night several hours after the body of a 19-year-old girl was found in a creek near a "lovers" home in Upper Merion township. Montgomery County District Attorney E. Arnold Forrest said Mario Leone, who was charged with the girl's death, signed a state that he killed the Bridgeport girl after an argument.

A Catanesi who worked in a tube factory, recently came to report from Jacksonville, Fla., with an aunt. Forrest said Leone told him he met the girl at her home and they went to a creek, a distance of almost miles. After conversing for a time, Giannone said an argument started and Miss Catanesi left him.

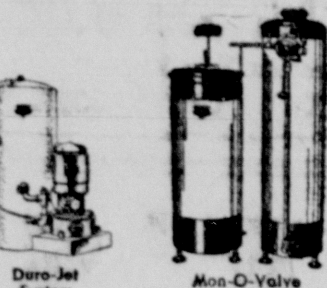

District attorney quoted Giannone as saying he then "wrestled her and grabbed her, holding her head under water." Then, Forrest quoted Giannone as saying he held the girl's body about 30 feet placed it on the ground and

Buoyant answer to Back Road and Boulevard

White sidewall tires, as illustrated, available at extra cost.

REMEMBER that rough patch of road up yonder where the ruts and ridges make a washboard seem smooth?

Recall the tiring tenseness brought on by the drum and hum of road noise and tremor even over smooth concrete highways?

Well, clock away the miles in this stunningly styled Buick — and meet up with the sweetest answer to such matters this side of cloud cruising.

"It's a ride that's soft and smooth as velvet," folks tell us. And we tell them it comes from a host of things.

It comes from the ample road-weight of a two-ton car built low and wide — and so beautifully balanced it handles light as a baton.

It comes from the leveling buoyancy of Buick's all-coil springing which puts a pillow of deeply coiled steel at each wheel to soak up the bumps and ripples.

It comes from the softness of bigger, lower-pressure tires that cushion away road tremors and roughness — from the sure-footed, swerve-free steadiness of Buick's extra wide Safety-Ride rims, widest in the industry.

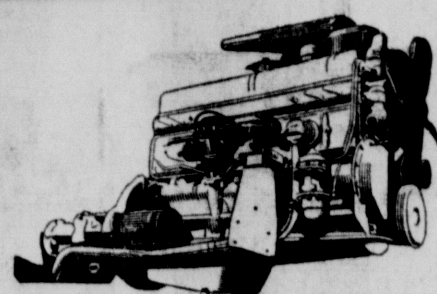

And it comes in special measure from a brand-new engineering gem we call Vibra-Shielding which banishes vibration build-up.

Here for the first time you're freed from the motoring fatigue brought on by tiny tremors piling up into bigger ones. Here your miles are made moss-smooth and quiet — long journeys become mere jaunts.

So why delay knowing the most buoyant answer to any road you ever traveled?

Come visit us now. Know at first hand the distinctive styling, the flashing action, the velvety ride over highway and byway that are Buick's and Buick's alone.

Then follow your heart's desire and get your order in promptly. We'll take it in proper sequence whether or not you have a car to trade.

REASON FOR THE VIBRA-SHIELDED RIDE

Placed with scientific exactness, 3 fat cushions of special composition cradle the engine so as to control its vibration frequency. Engine vibration is thus kept "out of tune" with those that might come from other parts of the car. The result is to shield car occupants against tiring pulsations, cut road noise, make engine sensation almost imperceptible and motoring practically fatigue-free.

BUICK alone has all these features

Prior to the meeting the sportsmen enjoyed horseshoes and other outdoor sports. Dr. Joseph R. Riden, the president, presided over the business meeting and G. Richard Knipple presented the secretary's report.

Bernard Dillman, fieldman, reported that three streams in Adams county had recently been stocked by the state with rainbow, brown and brook trout. These streams were Hartman's dam (Marsh creek), Toms creek and Chambersburg Water dam.

Roscoe W. Rittase and W. E. Stites, representatives of the local group for the Adams County Sportsman's Association, announced that the county association will hold a picnic at the South Mountain fairgrounds on August 29 for the members and their families.

Consider Deer Stocking

A communication was received from the Adams County Fish and Game Association asking the local group to co-operate in the purchase of deer to be released in the South Mountains. The request was rejected due to the fact that there is a possibility of another doe season which would defeat the purchase of the deer.

A discussion of the carnival followed. Bernard Dillman, general chairman, requested all members to be at the playground on Monday evening at 6 o'clock to assist in erecting the stands for the carnival which will be held from June 17 to 19. In the event of rain on Monday night, this work will be done on Tuesday evening. The entertainment for the three nights is: Thursday—"Happy Johnny and his Gang" (radio stars); Friday—The Littlestown Community Band and Saturday—The Littlestown high school band. There will be games for all and refreshments will be on sale.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Ernest Baumgardner, Raymond Reed and Ernest R. Sentz. The time and place of the July meeting will be announced later but the refreshment committee consists of Noah Strevig, James Duttera and Jack Crouse.

Girls Of Troop 76 Hike On Thursday

Littlestown Girl Scout Troop No. 26 enjoyed a hike Thursday afternoon under the direction of their leader, Miss Doris LeGore. Meeting at the home of their leader, they traveled south and at the end of the borough, they found a suitable place to enjoy games and partake of their lunch. Joan Koontz and Mary Harner were in charge of the favors and the games which were won by Mary Lou King and their leader, Miss LeGore. One of the games was concealed in their favors which consisted of lollypops. A piece of paper instead of the favor told each recipient of a stunt they were to perform. They returned home over the same route.

The following enjoyed the hike: Jane Kerns, Audrey Ellen Brumbach, Suzanne M. Harner, Patricia A. Long, Marilyn A. Spangler, Mary Lou King, Dawn F. Pettyjohn, Louise Kerns, Elizabeth Anne Crouse, Darla Lemmon, Shirley L. Crouse, Joan M. Koontz, Patricia A. Spangler, Phyllis Higinbotham, Virginia Koontz, Mary E. Harner and Miss Doris LeGore, leader.
